ferences when the Russians take pos-

peace has not been definitely decided, but General Linevitch will 1-main in command of from five to eight army corps. The others will be returned as fast as possible after the peace treaty is ratified, beginning with the reserve men who were on their way to the front when the protocol was signed, and then the European corps which have been longest in Manchuria. Not any of the troops will be moved until the rat stratfons are exchanged. Part of the active army will return by sea Instead of repatriating the Russian prisoners direct from Japan. The commission on repatriation favors bringing all the prisoners first to Viadivestok, when the Siberian reserves can be sent home and the others distributed among their original regiments for return to Russia.
